III. RECRUITMENT INITIATIVES

	Type of Recruitment Initiative (Menu Selection)	Brief Description of Activity
1	Management-level training regarding methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination and harassment in the workplace	On October 19, 2020, all employees in our SEU viewed a webinar about Sexual Harassment Prevention produced by the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing. This training defined what sexual harassment is, provided examples of conduct that may constitute unlawful sexual harassment, and provided information about Federal and State statutory laws as well as a summary of employer responsibilities to prevent, investigate, and correct such behavior in the workplace.
2	Internship Program	On Oct. 2, 2020, SEU Station KAZN(AM) welcomed a student attending Santa Monica College to participate in our KAZN internship program. She was supervised by the KAZN Program Director and and spent five months “shadowing” our Program Director and learning all about the operational and business aspects of radio broadcasting.
3	Management-level training regarding methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination	During the month of July 2021, the Senior Vice President of Multicultural Radio Broadcasting, Inc., the KAZN(AM) Sales Manager and Program Director, and the KMRB(AM) Sales Manager and Program Director viewed a webinar conducted by it’s counsel Fletcher, Heald & Hildreth entitled, The FCC’s EEO Rules . The FCC’s EEO recruitment, recordkeeping, and reporting requirements were re-examined and reinforced.
